

Code Blue

At 1400 East Federal Street

Oliver Recreation Center

The City is committed to providing a resource to people who would otherwise spend the night on the street during severe winter weather conditions.

Shelter services include: 1) A safe, warm place to sleep, 2) addiction, mental health referrals, medical attention provided by licensed nurses, 3) hot dinner and coffee/hot chocolate.

The Code Blue shelter will open only on the coldest winter nights (below 32° and/or with extenuating circumstances) between 5:00 pm to 8:00 am (when a Code Blue has been activated).

If you are unsure whether Code Blue is in effect, call 311.

Children and families are welcome...

The shelter is available for anyone in need of a warm place to stay, including families and individuals whose homes are without heat.

The shelter is safe and secure...

Baltimore City Police officers will maintain order and provide protection to the shelter staff and clients.

Transportation is available...

A wheelchair accessible bus will pick up individuals each evening and drop them off each morning from five downtown locations:

- Oasis Station, 220 N. Gay Street
- H.O.P.E. Drop-in Center, 1426 East Fairmount Avenue
- Health Care for the Homeless, 111 Park Avenue
- My Sister's Place, 123 W. Mulberry Street
- BCDSS- HESU, 2000 N. Broadway
